MILLINERY

You should visit our Millinery Parlors.

Our stock is larger than ever.

U will find our Hats are latest mode.

Rely on us to fill your orders promptly.

Spend your money where you get most in return.

The large number of our regular patrons is evidence we please.

Remember we furnish anything the market affords.

Unique are our "Glove Fitting" Corsets, the name tells the story. Last but not least, Dressmaking, Tailored Suits a specialty.

You will make no mistake if you come to us.

MRS. O. M. ROWELL

South Albany,

BICYCLES THE BEST STANDARD MAKES

Lovell Diamond with Coaster Brake, $30.00 Lovell Special with Coaster Brake, 25.00 Simmons, the Keen Kutter Brand, 25.00 Some good trades in second-hand Wheels.

We repair Bicycles and keep in stock everything in the Bicycle business.

In Automobile Supplies we have Gasoline, Oils and Greases, Batteries, Spark Plugs, Soap, Graphite, etc.

H. T. SEAVER

THE HARDWARE MAN

Barton,

Vermont

Subscribe for the Monitor

Contains more Orleans County News than any other paper published.

FOR SALE

1168-A MONEY-MAKING FARM of 225 acres in Caledonia County, 4 miles to nearest village, 8 miles to railroad over good road. School on fa m. 45 acres tillage, all machine work. Pasture for 40 cows and will winter 25 1000 cords wood 50,000 mixed timber 1 2 mile from mill. Fruit for home use. 800 sugar maples, equipped with 600 metal buckets with covers. Iron arches, galvanized storage tank. STOCK BARN 45x60, has basement and high drive. Cement water trough in stable, also cast iron water buckets in front of cows, Cow cribs cemented. New carriage house 18x20, granary 12x18, all in good condition. Old style house 20x38, 6 rooms finished in both soft and hard wood. New piazza whole length. Good spring water, house in good repair. Land borders small pond. Price of farm, sugar tools and sugar wood $2000, er for $4500 will include 10 c ows, 12 young stock, 2 horses, 25 sheep, 2 swine, will save any automobile owner 50 hens, 40 tons fodder, 200 bushels grain, new manure spreader, mowing ma chine, rake, cultivator, 2 harrows, 2-horse power, grain separator, cream separator, sawing machine, sled, express sleighs, sleigh, grindstone, Concord buggy, harnesses, churn and butter worker. The owner of this farm has made money fast, and now wishes to retire.

Catalogue Free

BARTON REAL ESTATE CO.

BARTON,

VERMONI

Prices on Coal are now the lowest they will be this year. Buy while it is low.

> Egg and Stove $8.75 per ton of 2240 lbs. Egg and Stove $7.7.5 " " 2000 " Nut Coal $9.00 per ton of 2240 lbs. Nut Coal $8.00 " " " 2000 "

Freeburning and Lehigh same price.

No orders taken at above prices after April 25th. I don't claim to be headquarters for all the best Coal sold. I sometimes get Coal that will sell to the same customer the second time. Ten cars of good Coal to arrive by May 20th. This is all sold now, more to come later.

C. E. BUSWELL, Agent

Barton, Vt., April 16th, 1913.

The Monitor 8 months and the Farm Journal 5 years, $1.00

FOR SALE

Good two-horse farm wagon, top buggy, nearly new; 1 slat wagon, 1 pair two-horse sleds, 1 cream separator, 1 set platform scales, 1 cutaway harrow, 1 plow, 1 weeder, 2 driving barnesses, one nearly new; also some small tools.

Having sold the Nelson Farm, wish to close out this personal property at once.

F. E. NELSON, Admr.

Auction Sale! Of Farm and Personal Property

APRIL 26th, 1913 AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M.

Home Farm Known as the Wm. Rogers Farm, now owned by George Rogers, on East Hill, Troy, Vt., about

140 ACRES

1400 sugar trees, rigged to tap 1200, mostly metal buckets. 300 covers, 12 ft. evaporator, arch and holders. Good buildings. Barn 80x30, with lean-to, stable with shed and 2 silos on end, Horse barn and carriage house, 20x40, with lean-to on side, 16x40. Water in Friday. barn yard. House 26x24, 2 stories, with ell 24x40. Good cellar. Large fruit orchards 2nd farm of 63 acres with about 1000 sugar trees. Barn, house, silo, hen house and shop. Well watered. 3rd farm about 1-2 mile away, 140 acres. Tool shop and sugar house only, about 1400 sugar trees, not rigged. The 3 farms will keep 50 cows, and team, 24 cows, 4 yearlings, 4 two-year-olds, 4 horses, 5 sheep with lambs, 11 hogs, 2 mowing machines, I horse rake, I corn planter, I wheel harrow, I spade and I tooth cultivator, 3 walking plows, I sulky plow, I ensilage cutter and blower, 2 double wagons, 2 buggy wagons, I sleigh, I pung, 2 pair double sleds, I one-horse sled, 2 nearly new work harnesses I heavy one-horse work harness, 2 driving first of the week to visit his son, who harnesses, 1 DeLaval separator, 1 grain sep- is in Mary Fletcher hospital. arator, 1-8 H. P. gasoline engine, nearly new, drag and circular saw, 50 cords wood in shed, small tools and household goods.

FREE LUNCH

TERMS-Under $10 Cash, Over $10 Cash, or good 6 months bankable paper.

Geo. Rogers, East Hill, Troy, Vt.

Geo. P. Cofran Auctioneer.

Notice

To all concer :ed: That portion of Porter Brook in the town of Greensboro, from the highway leading to the residence of J. G. Black to its outlet into Caspian Lake, and the tributary to Porter Brook from the fence line between the pasture and meadow of F. A. Goodrich to its junction with Porter Brook, is hereby closed from April 15th until June 1st, 1913. Fishing of any kind in said described waters during the above named period is prohibited. The above described waters are closed under the provisions of Sec. 67 of No. 201 of the Acts of 1912. The object is to protect the taking of fish that ascend this

J. W. TITCOMB. State Fish and Game Commissioner.

Spring Brightening Up

Come and see our new line of Paints and Wall Paper.

We are sugar buyers for the Cary Maple Sugar Co.

LEWIS BROS.

Automobile Instruction Books

many times their cost each season. Ask for free catalogue.

Our Optical Business

is increasing. We are planning to fit up an optical parlor and waiting room for our patrons and shall endeavor to give better service in the near future. Mr. Rutter will be here Saturday, April 19th, from 12 to 4 o'clock, p. m.

Both 'Phones

Barton, Vermont

Brighten We have the goods to do it with

Paint Varnish Wall Paper Campbell's Floor Finish Varnish Stain Kalsomine Colors in Oil

Aluminum Paint and Gold Bronze Paint and Varnish Remover

Stovepipe Enamel Paint for the sugar arch and smoke stack Roof Paint Wagon and Buggy Paint Varnish for Oilcloth and Linoleum Anything

See our line of Ginghams and Percales, House Dresses, Dresses for Misses and you may need in the Paint Line

Underwear

for men, women and children in union and two-piece suits-also N. H. ladies' muslin underwear.

New Shoes and Oxfords Hats and Caps Raincoats for men and women. All new and up-to-date Come in.

rasburg McCaffery.

Local News

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barber are making a short visit to his parents, enjoyng the new sugar.

Rev. Mr. Eddy attended conference Sunday. There was no preaching ser- Mrs. Stevens was born in Greensboro, vice at the church.

Mrs. Vernon Tichurst spent a few days last week with Mr. Tichurst's parents. Vernon came Saturday and spent Sunday here.

GREENSBORO

J. H. Barrington was in Cabot Sun-

W. S. Ingalls was in town last ters, Marion and Helen week Saturday.

Mrs. H. M. Farr was in St. Johnsbury last week Thursday.

The jurymen were dismissed and returned home last Wednesday. Miss Lillian Thornton returned Tuesday from her visit in Massachusetts. Mrs. C. C. Miller from New York city is boarding at Dr. F. C. Kinney's. F. H. Dufur and L. A. Jackson were in Newport last week Thursday and

Geo. A. Porter and Mrs. J. D. Willey were in Montpelier on business the last of last week.

N. H., was in town on business the first of the week. F. H. Dufur was in Burlington the

The current issue of the Vermonter contains a view of Caspian lake and a write up of the ponds and streams of Orleans county. Card of Thanks-I wish to express my thanks in this way to the many friends, who have so kindly remembered me with post cards during my sickness, also to the Tuckabache Sunday school class and other friends for the beautiful flowers that I have very much.

Flora S. Miller.

The following is from the Needham, Mass., Chronicle telling of the death of a native and former resident here. "Mrs. Nancy A. Harriman Stevens, wife of Timothy D. Stevens, died at her home on Central avenue Wednesday afternoon. The end came suddenly after an illness of several weeks. Vt., the daughter of Erastus and Lucinda M. (Corey) Harriman. For twenty-six years her home has been in Needham, and she has been a prominent and efficient worker in the activities of the Congregational church. She will be missed not only in church cir-cles but by the many friends her sterling qualities made for her. She is survived by her husband, and two daugh-

"Mrs. Stevens was characterized by a quiet and simple nature, and few but her closest friends and cc- workers realized the strength and ability that was behind it. Without undue assumption, she shouldered more than her share of work, cheerfully and willingly. She was ever a friend of the young people and had that delightful attitude of seeming in their presence, one of themselves.

"She had a passion for the thir.gs beautiful and strong in nature, found a great source of pleasure in the birds and flowers and stars, which to her A notice in this paper calls attention were almost companions. For years to the closing of the Porter Brook in she made a study of them, knowing them by their common and scientific names. Beloved by all who knew her, her memory will long be cherished.

"Private funeral services will be held from her late home at 1:30 Sun-Hon. David Perkins of Manchester, day afternoon, followed at 2 o'clock by services in the Congregational church. The burial will be at Needham.'

GREENSBORO BEND

Mrs. Lizzie Davis is teaching school at Lower Stannard.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are attending conference at Richford.

Mrs. N. A. Ross of Woodbury is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Michaud.

Mrs. Delia Sheltra has finished work for Mrs. Graham and gone to join her husband in Canada. John Brown, who works for J. H.

received. I have enjoyed them all Pope is spending his vacation with his parents in Fairfield.

CONTINUED ON PAGE EIGHT'

THE THREE CRAFTSBURYS

CRAFTSBURY

Mrs. Nellie Urie returned from Burington Thursday.

Dr. Dillingham is entertaining his mother from Johnson.

Mrs. Hoyt Smith, who was ill last week, is able to be out. Mrs. Levi Richardson burned her and quite badly last week.

Mrs. Fred Williams entertained the Willing Workers Wednesday.

David Moodie commenced work in Henry Smith's mill Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams visited elatives in Hardwick Thursday. It is expected there will be services in the M. E. church next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bay Simpson moved into their new residence last Monday. Etta Smith left Saturday for Elmore, where she is to teach the present sea-

Mrs. W. P. Kaiser and Mrs. C. G. Hatch were business visitors in Hardwick Friday.

Several sugar makers have taken in their buckets and report about the usual crop of sugar. Ernest Dill and family moved Tuesday to their new residence vacated by the Simpson family. Mr. and Mrs. William Remington moved last Tuesday into the house vacated by Mr. Dill. Harry Macomber has thoroughly repaired his house, added a new bathroom and clapboarded his barn. Dr. Dillingham has commenced work on the unfinished house lately purchased of the Smith Brothers' estate.

Margaret Gallagher, after visiting The listers completed their work last friends in town several days last week, returned to Hardwick last Saturday.

The little son of H. S. Buleson. who was so critically ill with typhiod fever for several weeks, has so far recovered as to be taken out of doors.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY

Miss Stone was a visitor at C. H. Root's the first of the week.

C. B. Smith entertained quite a company at his sugar camp Friday evening. Miss Flora Hadley, who has been in

Rev. A. Watts has joined his family at Dr. C. W. Dustan's for two weeks vacation.

Newport, where he has been for some weeks on jury. Geo. H. Chasse is visiting at the nome of his grandfather, Mr. Larabee, for a few days. The district school will begin next doing here?" Monday. Miss Nellie Sheehan from Hardwick as teacher. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cole were in Hardwick one day last week to attend it Alice?" the funeral of Frank Eastman.

The Missionary society met Wednesday with Mrs. N. B. Williams. New sugar and doughnuts were served by the hostess.

At the annual dinner given by Mr. Saturday, 53 persons partook of the sumptuous dinner. It was a social time to be remembered by all present for many years. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Root's kindness.

NEWS FROM IRASBURG

MRS. F. A. FIELD, LOCAL EDITOR

Doris Sears is ill with measles. The E. L. Chandler mill started up yesterday.

E. A. Pike has been on the sick list the past week. Mr. and Mrs. George Clark were in Newport on business Friday.

R. Bean of Orleans was the guest of S. W. Beauclerk yesterday. Mrs. Edward Dewing spent Friday with her daughter in Newport.

Truman Messier has gone to Lyndonville, where he has employment. Mrs. Clyde Thompson of Albany visited Mr. and Mrs. Fern Jones. Ray Peavey has gone to Manchester.

H. O. Rawson of Newport was business visitor in town Thursday. Jerry Barney of Woodsville, N. H., visited friends in town over Sunday.

N. H., where he has employment.

Oscar Gilbert of Enosburg is visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Woodward. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sanville of Westfield visited his parents over Sun-

Miss Maud Besaw and Harley Collins visited her parents in Troy over Sunare visiting friends, in Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Corrow will work for John Berkwitz the coming make an effort to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Slack of West Derby visited relatives in town over

John Gallagher of Hardwick was the guest of his niece, Mrs. James

Mrs. Leland Herman of Coventry is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Wells.

mainder of the week. Frank Simino will move his family

H. B. Chamberlin will visit friends

Bernard Lee, Tufts '15, is doing fine work on the varsity nine. He will take the spring trip with the team this coming vacation.

Will the person who picked up the suit case that was lost from the stage Thursday morning, April 10th, kindly return the same to M. A. Wells.

Charlie Taylor has finished work for quarter. has engaged to work this summer.

At Black River Valley grange meeting Wednesday evening, April 9th, The 1st and 2nd degrees were conferred on candidates. An interesting program filled the lecturer's hour, the question of the evening being, "Does it take more wisdom to earn a dollar than to gan. "After all this talk of old times, and ice cream were served. Next meet-Curtis Healey and Walter Houston ing April 23rd. The ladies' degree team will confer the third and fourth degrees upon all candidates who have received the 1st and 2nd. Let each one

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Services as usual next Sunday.

Epworth League meeting on Thursday evening to be led by Mrs. Ada Russell. Topic: "The Coming of the Comforter."

With a little cry of pain, Alice sank to the snow covered pavement Beneath the fresh fallen snow was as icy patch, and her ankle had turned under her.

She had been detained at the office rather late and the street was desert ed. Even the policeman on beat had sought shelter from the storm.

She made an effort to rise, but sank back helplessly as she placed s strain on the injured ankle and she be gan to cry softly. For perhaps ten minutes she lay there, then from around the corner came a muffled form and she gave a glad little cry that at tract attention.

"What's the matter?" called a cheery voice. "Had a slip?" "I have sprained my ankle," she ex plained. "I can't get up and it began to look as though I should have to spend the night here."

"I guess not," was the cheerful response. "Live far from here?"

"Four blocks down and one over." "Not worth while calling a cab," he commented, as he took a quick glance around. "I don't think we could get ! cab if I telephoned for one. This seems to be the proper caper."

In a nearby basement some boy had left his sled, and the man caught it up. "This will do finely," he announced. "I'll have you down there in no time at all." Gently he raised her in his strong arms and disposed her comfortably on the sled. Then he grasped the ropes and started off at a brisk trot. "It reminds me of the times when I used to draw my sweetheart to shoulder. "Ever live in the country?" "Long ago," she answered. "It school on my sled," he called over his

"Then I guess this makes you young again, too," "That's polite," she replied with a seems ages."

"I didn't mean that," he stammered. "I meant it would make you a kid again. I didn't suppose that you were an old lady, though with that brown veil, you might be my own grandmother."

"I guess I won't say anything more," he chuckled. "Perhaps I wasn't built to pay compliments. Is this where your turn." "To the right." "Right it is," and the sled swung Maine for four weeks, has returned

"Thank you again," she cried.

around the corner. Presently, at her word, he drew up in front of a house and again he lifted her in his strong arms. The ankle hurt terribly, but there was something comforting in the sense of his strength. C. L Wneeler has returned from It was only a moment before his ring was answered and as the door swung open and the yellow light streamed out, Mrs. Donaldson gave a cry of surprise.

"I've a bundle marked 'damaged in transit," he explained, smilingly, "but I did not know that it was for you. Is

"Why, Ned Carson, what are you

"Certainly, the poor child. Take her in the parlor and I'll be right along with hot water and bandages."

Carson carried the girl into the parlor and deposited her carefully upon "I never thought," he said softand Mrs. C. H. Koot in the sugar camp ly, "when I spoke of carrying my sweetheart to school, that it was my real one-time sweetheart that I was Afice colored vividly. She remembered those old days, and how they had plighted their childish troth. Ned had gone away and they had lost sight of each other. What would he say when he heard of her engagement?

"I'll run away with that borrowed sled before the police get after me," he announced briskly. "Then I'll back to see if I can be of any in Montpelier and Wells River the re- use." "Alice heard the front door close and settled weakly back upon the pillow. It seemed cruel, just as he had found to Orleans this week and he goes to her again and just when circumstances Skinner, Me., where he has employ- recalled their childhood, that she should repay his kindness with disillusionment. She had been genuinely fond of Ned in the old days, and she hated to give him pain. Yet it was > best that she should tell him frankly. It was a generous cruelty. Presently he came stamping back to announce that he had caught the small boy just going for a policeman, and that he had compromised for a

Charles Metcalf and has moved his family to C. H. Woodward's, where he Alice found herself forgetting her pain in listening to his recital of his experiences in getting ahead. He was so frankly proud of his success that it seemed a shame to dispel the newly-awakened romance by a word, yet save one?" Refreshments of cake doesn't it seem funny to hear that I'm engaged. I'm going to be married in the spring." She shrank back against the pillows, awaiting the look of disappointment she feared. Ned's face lighted with kindly interest. "Take my advice," he said, "and go to Washington for your honeymoon. They are so used to bridal couples where we went last year." Then, blushing guiltily, they looked into each other's eyes and-laughed.

there that no one notices them. That's